Please help us to achieve justice for Captain Clevy Nelson-Royster.

Imagine being covered with bruises and being burned while you try to rescue a person you love from a burning car. The bruises were from the very man she was trying to save, a man she loved despite his physical and verbal abuse. Captain Clevy Nelson-Royster couldn't get through the flames to her boyfriend, trapped in a burning car. Days after the accident that took Captain Perry's life, a grief-stricken Captain Nelson-Royster was arrested for connection to the accident.

Her arrest was widely publicized and sensationalized in the media. It was projected on a completely one-sided basis. Help us get TRUE justice for Captain Perry and save the freedom, well-earned career and reputation of Captain Nelson-Royster.

She is an upstanding young woman and officer who entered the military following the footsteps of her great uncle, a Tuskegee Airman, and her grandfather who retired as a Master Sergeant from the United States Air Force. It is with honor and passion that she serves in the United States Army. She is highly accomplished and dedicated to her military career as confirmed by her list of accomplishments below.

- Captain Nelson-Royster was in command at the time of her arrest in October 2020. Most captains are assigned one unit for command; she was assigned 2 units for most of her command - one in Texas and one in New Mexico:
Commander, Echo Company One, 10501st Attack Reconnaissance Battalion, Combat Aviation Brigade, 1st Armored Division and (temporary, but simultaneously) Rear D Commander for Grey Eagle
- She is Enrolled in Master in Management and Leadership program at Webster University. Graduation date was to be December 2020.
- Graduated Tuskegee University Magna Cum Laude 2015
- Completed 2 Bachelor degrees during her 4-year tenure at Tuskegee: Bachelor of Science Business Administration and Bachelor of Science Sales and Marketing
- Selected to work at Tuskegee College Business Office for 2 years and fundraising for Tuskegee University.
- Successfully completed Army Airborne training
- Awarded three Army Achievement Medals: ARCOM Medal, German Armed Forces Badge, Iron Woman
